PRAISE REPORT

Dawn and I ministered in a church in Newark, New Jersey. We heard this area was known for gangs, violence, and murder. On our drive home, we kept seeing people on the streets who needed Jesus. We knew we had to speak with them.

Our opportunity came. We saw a group of about ten African-American rough and tough looking guys. We are pretty sure they were part of a gang.

I pulled the car right next to them and said, "Hey, do any of you need any radical healing miracles right now?"

Several of them did, so Dawn and I asked if we could pray for them. They permitted us, and we got a word from the Lord that some of them had their hips out of alignment, resulting in an uneven leg length.

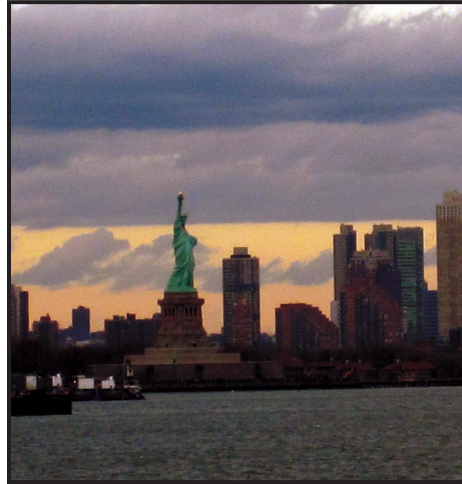

The group gathered around us, and I said, "Do you all want to see a miracle? God is going to grow his legs out so they are even right before your eyes. Not only that, He is going to use you to do it. Repeat after me." I was surprised when the crowd was intently listening, watching, and repeating with authority what I was saying. I continued, "In the name of Jesus, we invite the Holy Spirit in. We command this right leg to grow, and be even with his left."

As soon as the group said this, BAM!, his leg popped out about an inch. His body actually jolted as if something pulled on it. The crowd went ballistic. They had never seen anything like this before.

By the end of it, there were several supernatural healings, and six people received Jesus as their personal Lord and Savior. (See www.youtube.com/user/AllSufficientGod. [Miracles in the Hood].)
