DEVILS TO JESUS

While in Jackson Square a young man in his twenties named "Brian" was mad and yelling at people.

I approached him and said, "Hey man, you have a strong ministry call on your life. I can tell you have a preacher anointing on your life. You speak with authority."

I saw his eye brows raise and then out of the blue he gave me a hug. "Thanks," he said.

"Man, you have a strong call on your life. You have a very merciful heart."

He then started talking about all sorts of weird philosophy. He clearly had a nasty spirit of error. We knew we had to step into the supernatural because there was no chance to try and debate with him. I asked "Hey, do you want to receive a supernatural language right now? It's called speaking in tongues. Let me demonstrate."

I then began to pray in the Spirit. Immediately his eyes rolled deep into his head. His body began to pulsate and shake. I thought he might fall down.

Dawn and I kept praying in the Spirit. We prayed about a minute. I then put my hand on his chest and said, "I command spirit of death, witchcraft, suicide, lying spirit, and spirit of error to all go to the cross right now in Jesus' name."

After I said this, his eyes popped back down into their normal place and he looked normal. We were able to pray more with him and walked him through the sinner's prayer in which Brian received Jesus as his Savior. Yea, Jesus!

Jackson Square.

There were many people to minister to at Mardi Gras.

Trash galore after Mardi Gras.

Nathan and Dawn prayed for people on St. Patrick's Day.

Nathan prayed for this man in Jackson Square.
