We shared the Gospel with these children and fed them sandwiches.

There are some very beautiful areas in Cabo San Lucas.

This area has a deep history of pirates in the Sea of Cortez.

Easter in Mexico

By Nathan D. Pietsch

I had an amazing opportunity to preach at a local church on Easter Sunday. Easter is also known as "Resurrection Day" as Christians celebrate the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. The people responded very well to my message explaining the significance of the death and resurrection of Jesus. Almost the entire church came forward following an invitation to rededicate their lives to the Heavenly Father, Jesus Christ, and Holy Spirit.

Towards the end of the service I ministered to individuals who desired to receive prayer. A young man in his twenties was at the front. I learned later it was the first time he had ever gone to that church. He wanted to give his life to Jesus. After I led him through the "sinner's prayer" I began to pray over him. While I was praying, he passed out and fell to the floor. During that time on the ground, the Holy Spirit did a quick and deep work in his life. After he arose, he couldn't believe how clean and refreshed he felt. He described his experience as, "After I received prayer from you, I feel so clean now. I feel like a new born baby."

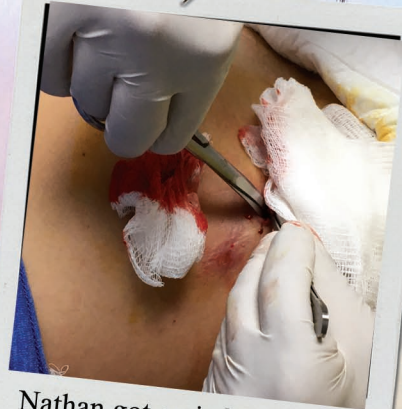

Our time in Mexico has not been in vain. We have been helping feed hungry children, lead workshops to train up the local Body of Christ, and preach at churches. As wonderful as it has been, we are hoping for God to do even more. We feel He is desiring to do a mighty work in Mexico. We are excited to be a part of it. Please keep us in prayer as we are believing to see God do a powerful work in Cabo San Lucas and beyond.
