The group was empowered to live
expecting God to use them.

Living in the Supernatural

By Nathan D. Pietsch

In September, Dawn and I headed from Oregon to Washington State. We were invited by a wonderful ministry to preach and minister at a revival conference. The theme given to me by the ministry to speak on was entitled, "Living in the Supernatural." The people were very receptive as I preached strictly from the Bible. I explained how all believers in Jesus should have signs, wonders, and miracles following their lives (Mark 16:17-18).

My favorite part of such an event is the opportunity to pray for the people and empower them to step into their true God-given destinies. During the prayer times, people received freedom from numerous demonic strongholds as the evil spirits were cast out. One person gained significant deliverance from 58-years of horrific fear caused by repetitive molestation during childhood.

In addition to the ministry time, I was able to train and equip the group to activate their faith through practical applications. The group was encouraged to pray for each other and speak words of edification, exhortation, and comfort (1 Corinthians 14:3). The activities were designed to help prepare the group to share their faith while at the supermarket, the shopping mall, or anywhere else.

In John 14:12, Jesus said, "...he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works... It is time for the Body of Christ to actually believe in the Bible and start living in the supernatural.
