The Year in Review 2019

Nathan spent the entire month of January in Nigeria, Africa. If you have ever been to an African nation, you know how difficult it is. Despite the hardships and discomforts, the ministry is spectacular. The people are desperate for an encounter with the Heavenly Father, Jesus Christ, and Holy Spirit.

Since the medical system is virtually non-existent in Nigeria, the atmosphere is ripe for healing miracles. The lack of medical attention the people receive results in shocking and disgusting injuries and illnesses. People live their lives with rotting flesh, deep infected gashes in their skin, and broken bones. It is a real life horror movie.

Two of the pictures below, is the hand of a 16 year old girl in Nigeria. Four years prior, she had a boil on her hand. She washed the boil and it became an open wound. The injury became infected and began to eat the flesh on her hand. The picture on the left was the first day I met her. I determined to pray for her daily for an entire week before I left the country. The picture on the right shows new skin, blood vessels, and the wound closing. I do not know how the girl is doing today, but I am believing for the wound to be completely healed in Jesus' name.

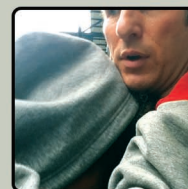

Nigeria is also a spiritual playground. The culture is full of high level witchcraft and sorcery. This results in the people being tormented and possessed by evil spirits. In one situation, I was asked to pray for a woman. When I began to pray, a spirit of death began to manifest that had been living in the woman. I cast the demon out of her, and then she got filled with the Holy Spirit to replace the evil. You can watch the short video clip of the event on YouTube by searching under, "Woman Delivered from Spirit of Death Nathan Pietsch."

After I returned from Africa, Dawn and I headed to New Orleans, Louisiana. For months, Dawn and I went into the French Quarter and street preached on the healing miracles of Jesus Christ found in the Bible. The French Quarter is the epicenter of evil in the city. We were able to help bring healing, salvation, and deliverance to many hurt and broken people in the Quarter.

In one situation, a young lady was abandoned by her friends. She was so intoxicated she did not even know where she was. She was skimpily dressed and primed for a major disaster. It is in these sorts of situations when people can get raped, murdered, or both. Dawn was led by the Holy Spirit and rescued this woman from an uncertain future. We safely drove her to the hotel she was lodging.

It was a sudden departure for Dawn and I to exit the South. We were sad to go because we were seeing God move so mightily through the street ministry we were conducting. Nonetheless, God had plans for us to minister in Washington, Oregon, and California. Our schedules quickly became overflowing with one-on-one prayer appointments. Strongholds of addiction, depression, suicidal tendencies, rage, and anger shattered by the power of the Holy Spirit and in the name of Jesus. It was powerful.

Most importantly, we want to thank each and every one of you for being apart of our lives and ministry. We are so appreciate of you. We would not be able to further the Gospel as we are without your prayer and financial support. You are having an eternal impact. May the Lord bless you abundantly, in the name of Jesus.
