Dawn and I teamed up with a church to carry the Gospel of Jesus Christ onto the streets in the midst of the revellies of Mardi Gras. If you want to see miracles, it is in these types of party atmospheres where God shows up powerfully. We had many amazing experiences seeing God move.

In one instance, a man got totally healed of major shoulder pain. He was unable to raise his arm. Dawn helped pray and the man began to raise his arm over his head without pain. Two drunk guys witnessed the miracle. When they saw we had done this in the name of Jesus they began to swear at us and commanded us to leave.

In another situation the Lord highlighted a woman for us to speak with. The Lord revealed to us through the spiritual gift of a word of knowledge (1 Corinthians 12:8) that she was a powerful prayer warrior. We spoke to her and she began to weep like a baby. She then said to us, "It's true, but I'm backslidden right now. I've walked away from God." We prayed for complete restoration in her relationship with God, and she received it.

Throughout the several outreaches we did during this time, we introduced a number of people to Jesus by leading them through the sinner's prayer. Other people were very blessed when we gave prophetic words of encouragement, exhortation, and comfort (1 Corinthians 14:3). Others also received physical healing from tormenting pain and demonic spirits. It was a great time for God's glory.
