Heavenly Angels

By Nathan D. Pietsch

Dawn and I had an amazing opportunity to pray for a woman in Northern California in a one-on-one prayer session. Our new friend is from the country of Indonesia. The prayer was intensive, but God showed up with great power and authority. The woman received a wonderful breakthrough in her life. At the end of our time together, a heavenly angel came into our midst.

I knew an angel had arrived, because I could physically feel it. My body began to tingle. I then looked at the lady we had just prayed for. It was difficult for her to stand on her feet, because she was feeling the angel too. I then saw the angel in the realm of the spirit, and it poured an anointing oil over the three of us. Our friend felt a hot liquid run down her face. The angel then departed.

After the experience, I pondered if the Western church has neglected angels. They should never be worshiped or take precedence above the Heavenly Father, Jesus, or Holy Spirit (Revelation 22:8-9). However, the early church had a strong awareness of angels (Acts 12:5-15). Jesus also had angels minister to Him (Mark 1:13.)

The next time you pray, take a moment to see if the Lord sends an angel to aid in the fulfillment of your prayers. You may find yourself face-to-face with an angel like Daniel (Daniel 8:15-16), Mary (Luke 1:26-27), or Elijah the Prophet (2 Kings 1:3).
