Ministry in Nigeria December 7, 2019 - January 28, 2020

My name is Nathan Pietsch. I am a missionary who carries the Gospel of Jesus Christ to nations around the world (Mark 16:15). It is my desire to tell people about the perfect love the Heavenly Father, Jesus, and Holy Spirit have for them. This is an unconditional love that casts out all fear, removes self-hatred, and destroys negative mindsets. It is God's love that brings radical transformation.

My latest mission trip consisted of 60 days in Africa. I spent 53 days in the nation of Nigeria and seven in Kenya. Each day was life transforming for myself and the people I encountered.

During my time in Nigeria, I partnered with a ministry called, Christ Mercyland Deliverance Ministries. It is an eight hour road trip from the major city of Lagos. Along the way, I noticed a high number of police officers and military soldiers demanding drivers to pull over. Most carry machine gun rifles, so their presence is authoritative.

The van I was riding in was forced to pull over by some officers. Unfortunately, Nigeria is full of corruption. The soldiers were commanding us to pay "bribery fees". They also threatened to confiscate our luggage and items inside the vehicles if we did not give them money. We were detained for over fifteen minutes. I prayed to the Lord for wisdom on how to get out of this situation. The Lord gave me a strategy.

I began to speak to the Nigerian officer about how much God loves him. After a few minutes, he permitted me to pray for him. He could feel the presence of God embracing him. It almost moved him to tears. After the prayer, the man released us to resume our trip without taking any of our money or possessions.

While at the ministry, tens of thousands of people come to receive counseling and spiritual freedom. Multitudes also come to receive prayer for physical healing. Since the medical system in Nigeria is so primitive, people live with horrendous diseases and infirmities. I saw people with tumors ready to explode, eyes popping out of their sockets, flesh eating breast cancer, giant goiters, skin diseases, lameness, and HIV. These people come to receive prayer for healing, and many do leave with a miracle.

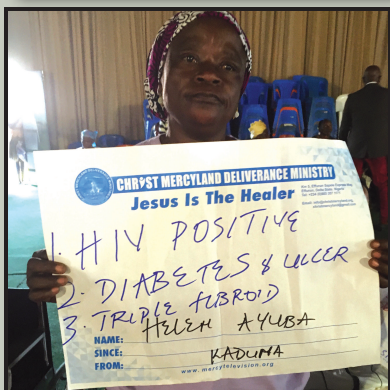

People also receive great spiritual freedom. One man was in a satanic cult group that required its members to eat their dead. The man consumed the internal organs of his deceased father. The leaders of the group also operate in high levels of witchcraft, the occult, and satanism. Through their evil incantations, they are able to project long, five inch sewing-like needles inside of their cult member's stomachs. These needles ultimately destroy the individuals and cause great physical pain.

The man in the cult came to Christ Mercyland Deliverance Ministries to receive spiritual freedom from evil spirits tormenting his life. While he received prayer, I witnessed him vomit out of his mouth many needles, sea shells, and wooden charms. The man experienced a great deliverance from the darkness and was able to embrace the saving grace and freedom found in Jesus Christ.

In another situation, a woman gave birth to a baby boy on the sidewalk next to a dirt road. She was not in a hospital, nor were there any doctors. I witnessed the event, and the woman did not seem to experience pain. Despite the conditions, the baby was happy and healthy.

I also had the great opportunity to preach inside a Nigerian prison. The inmates are serving long-terms and are very rugged. It was wonderful to share words of encouragement to their weary souls and give them an encounter with the unconditional love of the Heavenly Father, Jesus, and Holy Spirit.

After my time in Nigeria, I flew to Kenya in Eastern Africa. I was scheduled to preach as the main speaker at a large Gospel crusade. We were expecting many thousands of people to come to the event held in Nairobi. However, it seemed the Lord had a different idea.

We had booked, obtained permits, and paid for a prime location to hold the crusade. However, a week before the event, my team received word from the Kenyan government that we had to change locations. A political representative wanted to hold a rally at our location and paid more money than we did. We were sent scrambling in the last minutes to secure another venue for the crusade. This instantly took our crowd of multiple thousands down to hundreds.

During our three day event, the rain poured for most of it. It is an uncommon characteristic to experience rain in Nairobi in early February. This further dampened our expectations. Despite the seeming setbacks, God moved in a way that only He can. The people at the event were powerfully touched and the Gospel went far. I also prophesied over the city of Nairobi and Kenya.

In addition to preaching at the crusade, I spoke in a church. While I ministered, a woman received great freedom from evil forces destroying her life. She had many demons living inside of her. I cast them out in the name of Jesus and by the power of the Holy Spirit. After her deliverance, she said, "I was experiencing a deep pain in my stomach for over one year now. Even today it was hurting me so bad. I don't feel that pain anymore."

Another interesting idea to ponder occurred on the day I left Africa. The former Kenyan president from 1978 to 2002 died. The Kenyans claim he was a very corrupt man who sank their nation to a low level. In the realm of the spirit, when a person dies, something shifts. My Kenyan friends believe the Gospel crusade, in junction with the prayers and prophecies caused this man's evil agenda to expire. They are believing God for a major turn around and revival to begin.

If you have never been outside of the USA on a mission trip, I encourage you to venture forth. God moves in ways that are unexpected. If you cannot go, consider sponsoring and praying for those who do go. Whether you carry the Gospel to people in foreign countries, financially support them, or cover them in prayer, your life can never remain the same.
