A mossy green forest next to a flowing watery creek.

Dawn and I went to Hawaii
"virtually."

There is no shortage of colorful flowers.

Finding Hope in the Scriptures

By Nathan D. Pietsch

Psalm 71 is not usually a section of Scripture that catches the attention of many people. However, when you read the text, you can find great comfort during trying times. I would like to highlight several verses, so you can find hope and encouragement from the Word. Psalm 71 says in the New King James Version:

¹ In You, O Lord, I put my trust... When you are facing hardship, your faith will be tested. The psalmist declared that he would put his trust in the Lord. ³ ...Be my strong refuge, to which I may resort continually... For You are my rock and my fortress. The Lord is always there waiting for us to take refuge in Him. We are to go to God regularly and find the safe and peace-filled place He has prepared for us.

⁵ ...For You are my hope, O Lord God... When everything seems to be crashing down around you, find yourself putting your hope in God. The Lord's kingdom is eternal. ⁸ ...Let my mouth be filled with Your praise and with Your glory all the day... One of the best activities you can do during trying periods is to praise and glorify the Lord. When you praise God, He enthrones Himself in your midst. (See Psalm 22:3.)

I encourage you to read Psalm 71 in its entirety. There might be life transforming words awaiting you. I also recommend you take a moment right now and place a song of praise and thanksgiving to God on your lips. In Him, there is much to rejoice about.

I saw a scorpion in the forest and thought of Luke 10:19.

A wonderful mountain lake.

A beautiful babbling brook
as in Psalm 23.

Taking Logan for a walk in the outdoors.

Our first restaurant in two months.

I saw a raccoon wandering around the neighborhood.
