Online Prayer Movement

By Nathan D. Pietsch

During these times of social distancing, we have had to adapt our ministry style. In the past, we would travel to different regions and minister to many people on the streets and in the marketplace. You can read about hundreds of our stories from street ministry experiences in my book, Go: Testimonies from the Front Lines, our Blog, or past editions of Frontline Chronicles. As missionaries, we would also speak in various churches. All of this has stopped.

Like the rest of the world, we have had to transition to online ministry. We have started a prayer movement on Thursdays at 10:30 AM and then 11:30 AM. We have been doing it on Zoom, and some people have been joining from around the nation and even overseas. The first session is praying for individuals and their families. The second session focuses on the nations. It has been an amazing time. Even amidst the pandemic, we have been able to make a major difference for God's kingdom through the Internet. We are hoping for even more.

We are also able to pray for individuals over Zoom in personal one-on-one sessions. That has been very impactful as well. We are excited to see the Lord moving. Despite our ministry shifting, people's lives have been greatly touched. Without you, we would never be able to continue pressing towards the great commission in the capacity we are able. We want to emphasize our sincere appreciation for your continued, amazing, and generous support. Whether that is encouragement, prayer, or financial, we are forever grateful.

Ministry in the Northwest, USA

September, 2020

Dawn and I went to the beach on a day trip.

Dawn and I both celebrated our birthdays in September.

An old wheel barrel.

This taxi is probably from the 1920s. It has wooden spokes.
