Angels Rejoice

By Nathan D. Pietsch

Jesus said, "...There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents (Luke 15:10)." Dawn, our ministry friend, and myself have been going to the local park to share the love of the Heavenly Father, Jesus, and Holy Spirit. Many of the people are homeless, hopeless, drunk, and drugged.

While our friend was singing, a man walked up towards us. He appeared to be mentally unstable, intoxicated, or stoned. Even though his natural mind was distorted, his spirit knew the peace we were offering. I began to get words of knowledge (see 1 Corinthians 12:8) that he had shoulder and back pain. I asked him, and he told me he was in so much pain he could barely move. I began to pray for healing, but only saw minimal results.

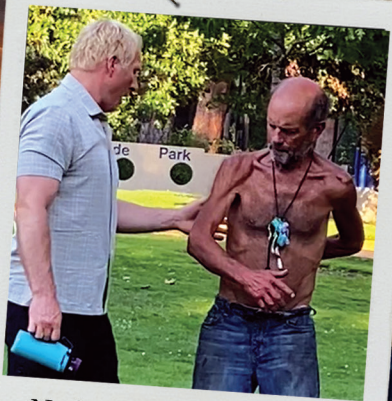

I was then quickened to a necklace charm he was wearing around his neck. I knew it was evil in nature. I asked him about the necklace. He said, "I made it for myself to gain [satanic] power." I immediately knew it was a witchcraft charm. I also knew his physical ailment was linked to the charm around his neck.

I asked him, "Are you ready to surrender your necklace?" He removed it from his neck and threw it to the ground. I prayed again and the pain left. Even though I didn't lay hands on him, he said, "I felt as if I got poked in my ribs with a giant finger. My back, hips, and ribs instantly realigned and the pain left." I was then able to lead him in a prayer of dedication to the Heavenly Father, Jesus, and Holy Spirit.
