Preaching in the Park

By Nathan D. Pietsch

Not only are the temperatures rising during these summer days, but it is also heating up in the spirit realm. Dawn and I are seeing and experiencing breakthroughs that we haven't witnessed before in our ministry. We are keeping very active in ministry by preaching at conferences, speaking the Gospel in the local park, leading the Destiny Activated Program, and conducting one-on-one prayer sessions.

The people we have been ministering to have been receiving healing and freedom with great success. For example, at a conference I preached at, a man had a devastating emotional trauma that tormented his life for sixty years. Jesus healed the man and set him free in a matter of moments. While preaching in the local park, the presence of God has been showing up in powerful ways. Jesus said in Matthew 18:20, "For where two or three are gathered together in My name, I am there in the midst of them." We are experiencing Jesus being in our midst while in the park.

The local park is overrun with homeless people. There are homeless camps spread throughout the grounds. Some people have pitched tents, others are sleeping in their cars, and some are under the park picnic tables. Many of these amazing people are loaded on drugs, hopeless, and violent. It seems to be this kind of atmosphere that Jesus loves to invade. Those living in the park have been very receptive to us sharing the love of the Heavenly Father, Jesus, and Holy Spirit with them. Please keep us in prayer as we go forth with boldness.
