Your Distraction Free Place

By Nathan D. Pietsch

Dawn and I had the wonderful opportunity to go on a personal retreat. Our plan was to recalibrate our lives with the direction the Heavenly Father, Jesus Christ, and Holy Spirit has for us. Life, stress, and world events have a way of disorienting a person from walking on their true path of destiny. If you are feeling dry, disoriented, fearful, or confused, I encourage you to seek a quiet place where you can get away with God.

The Bible tells us in the Book of Song of Songs 2:13c-14: “Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away! O my dove, in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the cliff, let me see your face, let me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely.”

This passage of Scripture is giving you an invitation to go away and seek God. The Lord is desiring and even longing to see your face and hear your voice in the quiet place. In the Bible, Jesus also isolated Himself from people, life, and ministry demands to connect with the Heavenly Father. The Word says in John 6:15, “Therefore when Jesus perceived that they were about to come and take Him by force to make Him king, He departed again to the mountain by Himself alone.”

In these stretching and difficult times, it is so important to find sanctuary in the Lord. Remember, God is your strong tower (Proverbs 18:10). Be sure to spend time each day in your distraction free place and seek the Lord.
