Greater Outpouring

By Nathan D. Pietsch

After a year of lock down, the doors are finally opening again. People are gathering at churches. On Mother's Day, Dawn and I were guest speakers at a wonderful fellowship. I shared on the Prophet Balaam. This man might have been one of the greatest prophets in the Old Testament if his character was not flawed. I spoke on his amazing encounters with God, but also shared about his faulty spiritual foundations. It was a practical message that held a warning to all of God's people. You can listen to the audio file on Youtube by searching: All Sufficient God :: The Downfall of the Prophet Balaam.

Dawn and I have also started a discipleship training program called, Destiny Activated. This Program is designed to help people accomplish their true God-given purposes in life. Throughout the training, the participants discover the major spheres of influence they are destined to impact. We then remove obstacles that might hinder their advancement. Along the journey the people's relationships with the Heavenly Father, Jesus Christ, and Holy Spirit significantly deepen and blossom. You can watch some videos on Youtube by searching: All Sufficient God :: Destiny Activated.

It has been fun to watch the Destiny Activated group grow and catch the fire of the Holy Spirit. God is revealing Himself in a greater way than before the pandemic. If you have not plugged into a Bible-preaching, Holy Spirit filled congregation yet, I recommend you go. I believe God desires to encounter you in new and fresh way.

We had the privilege to pray for a man running to be governor.

The sun is shining in the Pacific Northwest.

Nathan caught a 7 lb large mouth bass that he released.

There is still a lot of snow
in the higher elevations.
