Psalm 27:1

New King James Version:
A Psalm of David.

²⁷ The Lord is my light and my salvation;
Whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the strength of my
life;
Of whom shall I be afraid?

Psalm 27:1

New King James Version

Psalm 27:3

New King James Version:

³ Though an army may encamp
against me,
My heart shall not fear;
Though war may rise against me,
In this I will be confident.

Psalm 27:3

New King James Version

Psalm 27:5

New King James Version:

⁵ For in the time of trouble
He shall hide me in His pavilion;
In the secret place of His tabernacle
He shall hide me;
He shall set me high upon a rock.

Psalm 27:5

New King James Version

Whom Shall I Fear?

By Nathan D. Pietsch

King David is one of the most well-known characters in the Bible. He was the man who slew Goliath (1 Samuel 17). David killed both lions and bears (1 Samuel 17:36). He was skilled on the harp (1 Samuel 16:23). King David was also considered a man after God's own heart (1 Samuel 13:14). As a result of his devotion to the Lord, he wrote over 40 psalms.

One of David's more popular writings is Psalm 27. This psalm is an exuberant declaration of faith. The words of David are as relevant for us today as when he wrote them. I have extracted several verses for you to ponder.

¹ The Lord is my light and my salvation; Whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; Of whom shall I be afraid? ³ Though an army may encamp against me, My heart shall not fear; Though war may rise against me, In this I will be confident. ⁵ For in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pavilion; In the secret place of His tabernacle He shall hide me; He shall set me high upon a rock. ¹³ I would have lost heart, unless I had believed That I would see the goodness of the Lord In the land of the living. ¹⁴ Wait on the Lord; Be of good courage, And He shall strengthen your heart; Wait, I say, on the Lord!

As followers of Jesus Christ, we need to be the example for the rest of the world to see. The promises in the Bible should give us hope and courage. As David said in verse 1, "The Lord is my light and my salvation; Whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; Of whom shall I be afraid?"

Psalm 27:13
New King James Version:

¹³ I would have lost heart, unless
I had believed
That I would see the goodness of the Lord
In the land of the living.

Psalm 27:13
New King James Version

Psalm 27:14
New King James Version:

¹⁴ Wait on the Lord;
Be of good courage,
And He shall strengthen your
heart;
Wait, I say, on the Lord!

Psalm 27:14
New King James Version

1 Samuel 17:50
New King James Version:

⁵⁰ So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and struck the Philistine and killed him. But there was no sword in the hand of David.

1 Samuel 17:50
New King James Version

1 Samuel 17:36
New King James Version:

³⁶ Your servant has killed both lion and bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, seeing he has defied the armies of the living God.

1 Samuel 17:36
New King James Version

1 Samuel 16:23
New King James Version:

²³ And so it was, whenever the spirit from God was upon Saul, that David would take a harp and play it with his hand. Then Saul would become refreshed and well, and the distressing spirit would depart from him.

1 Samuel 16:23
New King James Version

1 Samuel 13:14
New King James Version:

¹⁴ But now your kingdom shall not continue. The Lord has sought for Himself a man after His own heart, and the Lord has commanded him to be commander
over His people, because you have not kept what the Lord commanded you."

1 Samuel 13:14
New King James Version
