It's Time for Your Ministry

By Nathan D. Pietsch

If you are struggling during these times with fear, finances, depression, anxiety, or discouragement, take your focus off yourself and begin to minister to other people. As you change your gaze towards others you will find people whom you can help. James wrote in 1:27, "Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their trouble..." This principal is not limited to only orphans and widows.

The Bible tells us in Joel 3:14, "Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of the Lord is near in the valley of decision." There are many people standing in a place where they need to make a decision. If you bring Biblical wisdom, you will be able to help them. Also, if you have fear of entering your ministry, think upon the words Isaiah spoke in 41:10. "Fear not, for I [God] am with you; Be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, Yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand."

Here are some practical solutions you can do to help others. 1) Volunteer at a local church or soup kitchen to help feed those in need. 2) Reach out to people you know. Spend 30 minutes a day calling people the Lord places on your heart. Your intent should be to bring Biblical encouragement while directing them towards the Heavenly Father, Jesus, and Holy Spirit. 3) Print several Scriptures you can use that will bring hope, peace, and edification. Read those verses often and share them with others. Some examples include: John 14:27, Romans 8:38-39, Deuteronomy 31:6, Ephesians 3:20, Proverbs 3:5-6, Psalm 23:1, and Isaiah 60:1.
