Nigeria Mission Trip in Review

By Nathan D. Pietsch

I spent the entire month of November, 2021 in Nigeria, Africa. This was my sixth mission trip there. Nigeria is a very difficult place to be. It is stricken with poverty, trash, and chaos. However, the ministry is extraordinary. Everywhere you look, there is a need.

A highlight of my journey was assisting the Unity International Charity Organization. We organized a community ministry outreach where I was able to preach the Bible to those in attendance. The children encountered the Heavenly Father, Jesus, and Holy Spirit in a special way. Several Muslim families were also there. We fed about 250 people total and distributed bags full of clothes.

I then traveled 13 hours to Christ Mercyland Deliverance Ministries (www.mercytelelevision.org). I learn so much from the ministers there. They operate at a level in the Holy Spirit the average American church hasn't even touched. In addition to my own spiritual strengthening, I am able to preach and help bring freedom to people who are bound by dark forces.

The final leg of my journey consisted of doing ministry outreach in the slums. The living conditions were shocking. Words cannot properly describe the sub-standard conditions. I want to thank every person who contributed towards this mission trip. Your gifts went far. We are planning to impact Nigeria in even larger ways.
