Relight Your Fire

By Nathan D. Pietsch

In March, Dawn and I ministered at an event hosted by Kimarie Lamb. It was entitled, The Confirmation Summit. The meeting was designed to help refresh, renew, and refill God's leaders and ministers. Many of the Lord's five fold ministers had grown weary and war torn. Some had become faint, discouraged, and wounded.

In Mark 6:31 (NKJV) Jesus said to His disciples, "Come aside by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." It was during that time of rest, the disciples were refreshed. The Confirmation Summit gave those in attendance the opportunity for a "mountain top experience."

People joined the Summit from all over the region. One of the people in attendance was named Carol. Carol and her husband are seasoned ministers with a long history of serving the Lord. Due to unfortunate circumstances and deep wounding from the people she was helping, Carol stepped out of ministry for the past four years. She was so exhausted and discouraged that she never wanted to attend another church service or event. However, the Heavenly Father, Jesus, and Holy Spirit gently drew her to the Summit.

God touched Carol in a supernatural and powerful way. He removed the deep wounding and lit a new fire inside her. It was so dramatic she cannot wait to minister again. She has much more to do for the kingdom of God. If you are experiencing fear or fatigue, I encourage you to go aside and rest a while with Jesus.
