Giving Thanks

By Nathan D. Pietsch

In November the holiday, “Thanksgiving” is celebrated nationwide throughout the United States. One purpose of the holiday is to reflect upon God’s goodness and be thankful for the blessings in your life. Unfortunately, much of the holiday is now focused on fine dining and watching American football. This is where the potential danger lies.

The Bible warns of the dangers of an unthankful heart. The Bible tells us in Romans 1:20-26 that all people intuitively know there is a God and are without excuse for denying His power or existence. Verse 21 states, “although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful...”

A person who does not glorify or thank God can become victim of the Bible’s warnings. Such a person might become futile in their thoughts, have their hearts darkened, and become foolish. This could result in being given to uncleanness, being overtaken with lust, dishonoring your body, exchanging the truth for a lie, worshiping creation, and being handed over to vile passions.

The Bible clearly states the importance of glorifying God and being thankful. It is not too late to show gratitude. What are you thankful for? Tell the Heavenly Father, Jesus, and Holy Spirit what you are grateful for. Also, Dawn and I want to thank you immensely for being a part of our lives.
