Healed of Childhood Incest

By Nathan D. Pietsch

One portion of the ministry Dawn and I are called to do is to help people receive freedom from emotional and physical trauma, abuse, or pain. Keep in mind the Bible teaches that humans are a three part being. Humans consist of a spirit, soul, and body. (See 1 Thessalonians 5:23.)

Many of the people we minister to have a personal relationship with the Heavenly Father, Jesus, and Holy Spirit. Despite their relationship with God, people come to us to receive liberty from trauma. Dawn and I are able to help them get unstuck and renew their minds. The Apostle Paul's words in Romans 12:2 are applicable to all people when he said, "Be transformed by the renewing of your mind."

In one prayer session this month Dawn and I prayed for a woman in her seventies. She was molested by a family member when she was five. That was a significant trauma in her life. We were able to lead her into an encounter with the Lord. Jesus revealed Himself to that five year old girl in a powerful way.

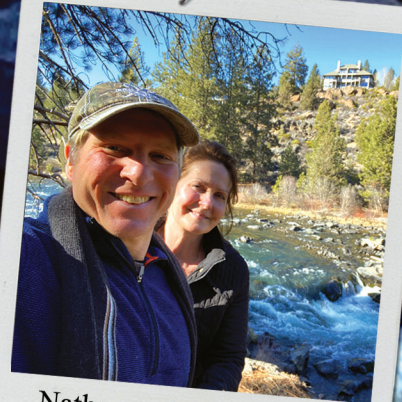

The Lord showed "Carol" in a vision how the enemy had held her in bondage due to the trauma. Carol say herself as the five year old girl. She was surrounded by briars and thorns in every direction. She was trapped with no escape. Jesus entered the scene and was able to rescue Carol from her childhood trauma. Carol experienced an instant healing inside of her. Jesus is still healing people today as He did when He walked the earth.
