The Year in Review 2025

By Nathan D. Pietsch

The year 2025 was filled with both victories and discouragements. However, every setback is an opportunity to grow closer to the Lord. In Daniel 3:8-18 we see three Hebrew boys maintaining their faith when unexpected problems arose. This inspired me to preach a message entitled, "When Life Throws You a Curve Ball." I had also began organizing a Crusade in Nigeria. However, due to Nigeria's civil unrest, it has been postponed.

A conviction I experienced in 2025 was the number of distractions I had during my one-on-one time with the Heavenly Father, Jesus, and Holy Spirit. As my focus improved, the Lord revealed to me Abraham's great faith and obedience in leaving his home to follow God. This mirrored the joy and sacrifice of Dawn and my 14 years as missionaries. You can listen to the message I preached on this subject called, "The Hall of Faith: Abraham."

The last half of the year was marked by impactful events and practical application. The September martyrdom of Charlie Kirk served as a catalyst for believers to rise up with a new boldness. This led me to share a message called, "Charlie Kirk's Martyrdom Has Birthed Revival." In October, I preached a message called, "Be Someone's Last Chance." The highlight verse was taken from Proverbs 24:11.

As 2025 draws to a close and 2026 opens a new chapter, Dawn and I want to thank you all so much for your prayers, support, and financial blessings. We are grateful for you and so honored to be in full-time ministry.
