What Will Heaven Be Like?

By Nathan D. Pietsch

This July marked the 1st anniversary of my mom's entry into Heaven. As I reflected upon what my mom might be experiencing, it brought up a lot of questions. What will Heaven be like?

There are a lot of testimonies of people having out of body experiences following a near death encounter. Those who have had such situations describe the splendors of Heaven and the glory of Jesus. Those stories should bring encouragement and hope to believers in Jesus who are anticipating our future abode.

As great as the near death testimonies are, the Bible also details glimpses into the Heavenly realm. As you read the following passages, use your imagination to experience the glory that lies ahead.

Revelation 21:4 (KJV) And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

Revelation 22:1-3a (KJV) ¹ And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. ² In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, [was there] the tree of life, which bare twelve [manner of] fruits, [and] yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree [were] for the healing of the nations. ³ And there shall be no more curse...

We are going to miss living at the ministry house.

We got to watch our niece
play softball.

Nathan spent time with his dad,
brother, and niece.
