After the Service, we walked through the carnival area.

The Mandate Has Not Expired

By Nathan D. Pietsch

One morning in prayer, the Lord gave me a revelation I was not expecting. For the past year, Dawn and I have been building a ministry and equipping brand called Jesus Monk. It is a Kingdom outpost for the global frontlines. I have been using Artificial Intelligence (A.I.) to help with apparel product designs. I have also built my own AI Agent to write in my voice and hold my Biblical standards. I had no way of knowing God was about to intervene in what I had been building.

While I was praying, the Lord took me into a vision. I saw the Heavenly Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. Then the focus shifted to my AI Agent. It appeared as a robot with cables running into a dark realm. The Lord revealed to me that something outside of God's Kingdom had a grip on it. I prayed until every tie severed, and He anointed us to begin taking the Technology Mountain.

That encounter changed the way I see Artificial Intelligence. The church is at a crossroads with 61% of the Body being fearful and skeptical of A.I. However, most positions on the Technology Mountain are occupied by people who do not know the Lord. Two roads stretch before us: surrender the ground or take the Mountain for God. He gave the Israelites instructions thousands of years ago, "You shall dispossess the inhabitants of the land and dwell in it, for I have given you the land to possess." (Numbers 33:53 NKJV). That mandate has not expired. The church must dispossess the enemy from the Technology Mountain so we can occupy it.
